CRYSTAL THERAPY CERTIFICATION WORKSHOP
“HOW TO USE CRYSTALS FOR HEALING”

In this one day workshop, you will learn about the connection that crystals have to water, and how they can be helpful, or even essential, when dealing with the issues of the human body. There will be a heavy focus on the teachings of Dr. Marcel Vogel and his methods of using fine cut crystals as an energy device. It is also for those looking to learn and have an experience with crystal energy movement, or those interested in adding the modality to their current practice.

You will have a chance to learn the crystal release technique developed by Marcel Vogel that Chris uses in his practice to create movement around deep-seated emotional issues. This powerful method uses breath, intention, and crystals to deliver energetic shifts in the human body.

In this class you will learn:

- The science behind crystalline energy in healing
- Clearing and cleansing crystals
- Igniting and programing the crystal
- Crystals as communication or storage devices
- The Marcel Vogel Crystal Release method
- Using the crystal on yourself to promote healing
- Mind's eye clearing
